Good luck to the 6th grade tennis team for their home match today against Conway Springs. Make sure you are at the courts no later than 4 p.m.

The Wellington Middle School Girls Tennis Team traveled to Ark City & Goddard this week. The Lady Knights were edged by a tough Ark City team. The all day Goddard Invitational consisted of 10 teams. Team results are pending, individual finishes were: Baylee Newberry & Stellar Young both finished 1-3 playing singles. Olivia Brand & Payton Ginter earned medals winning #2 Doubles consolation bracket. Rylee Rusk & Calli Hatfield dominated their opponents bringing home 1st place medals in the #1 Doubles division. Good work ladies!!

OFFICE:

The Wellington Middle School Spelling Bee will be held this Friday, September 23rd, 1st hour in Room 606. Due to limited space, only spelling bee participants will be allowed to attend. If you have any questions or for more information please contact Mrs. Wasser!

Attention Students: it's that time of year again to start signing up for Circle of Friends. To the new students @ WMS what is Circle of Friends? It is a mentoring program that once a month during school students are grouped with a Buddy in order to develop positive relationships with a new friend. We have a lot of fun developing long lasting friendships. If you are interested in joining pick up an application in the office or outside Room 706 no later than September 22nd! Let's have a great year

Attention Future Rocket Scientist: It's time to challenge your knowledge & skills! The Zone is proud to bring to you the Rocket Club starting September 22nd through the end of October. Rocket Club members will build a model rocket & then launch your radical rocket into the atmosphere. To join the Rocket Club, stop in the office or Room 706 to pick up the enrollment form. Cost is $20 for Non-Zone members & it's free to Zone members. Sack lunches will be provided. membership must be turned into Mrs. Tracy by September 22nd.
