 - E. Nominees who were employees of USD 353 Wellington must be retired or no longer working for USD353.

Nominees will not be discriminated against based on race, creed, religion, sex, nationality, disability, economic or marital status.

Selection Committee

The selection committee consists of one member of the WHS faculty, two students, and three community members who are WHS alumni or former staff. Previous winners of the award are also eligible to vote.

Each year the committee will review all recent and previously submitted nomination forms.

Crusader Wall of Fame nominations are accepted on an ongoing basis. Honorees for the Wall of Fame are selected and notified in February. Presentation of Crusader Wall of Fame Inductees is made yearly at Crusader Class Night in May. A maximum of four or a minimum of one honoree will be selected each year.

The forms for nominees not selected will be saved on file and will be reviewed and reconsidered each subsequent year. (Nominations can also be resubmitted or updated at any time)

The committee reserves the right to disqualify any nominee or recipient who does not maintain the high standards of excellence and citizenship in the spirit that this award intended to represent.
