ADAM HATFIELD, PRINCIPAL

The Wellington High School administration is proud to announce the Valedictorians and top ten percent of the 2014-2015 senior class.

“It is with my pleasure to name Mikala Mae Bradbury, Jade Alexandra Dry, Maggie Harris Fink, Kindyl Joy Krueger, Sarah Elisabeth Lee, Katie Nicole Pape and Cajen La’Nae Shore as the Valedictorians,” said Adam Hatfield, principal of WHS.

The remaining top ten percent of the senior class are: Bailey Christine Altendorf, Austin Kyle Nefzger, Rebecca Suzann Pinkerton, Colin James Reichenberger, Shayna Jean Templeton and Caitlin Michelle Williams.

“All of these students completed the requirements established by the USD 353 Board of Education for graduation and the Kansas Scholars Curriculum established by the Kansas Board of Regents,” according to Hatfield.

Baccalaureate will be held on Sunday, May 3rd, 2:00 p.m. at the United Methodist Church. Class Night for the seniors will be held Thursday, May 14th beginning at 7:00 p.m. with Commencement ceremonies to take place on Sunday, May 17th, 2:00 p.m. Both programs will be held in the Wellington High School Gymnasium. Seniors will receive 10 tickets to give to family and friends for priority seating for the commencement program. Doors will open at 1:00 p.m. for ticket holders with the general public being seated at 1:45 p.m. The gymnasium provides ample seating so please don’t hesitate to attend the ceremony.

“We are very proud of all of our seniors and their accomplishments,” Adams said.
